You learn a little bit of information quickly and get paid pretty well to do it. Job security is excellent. The bad thing is that it's a call center environment, so while you learned a ton you will eventually burn and realize that taking 70 calls a day sucks. It's a great company but move out fast or move out. Director at Alpharetta, GAGran company for a long time career! love working at E*TRADE and I expect many more years! Through a very difficult year, E*TRADE has gone above and beyond to take care of us and our families. We have worked safely from home through the pandemic and have been given additional benefits that allow us to take care of our families. I've had amazing opportunities to learn and do more. Even through our WFH environment, my manager has continued to participate in my development. I wouldn't want to be anywhere else! Product Manager in Jersey City, NJGreat Supportive Environment to LearnE*Trade is a great place to challenge yourself while working with smart and supportive people. The work environment is extremely energizing and efficient, making you feel extremely responsible and proud of the work being delivered. I would recommend 100% paper to anyone! Financial Consultant at Sandy, UTgood place. a lot of stress from the slopes. again, a lot of stress on the slopes. Other factors, have good benefits and good staff. If you are a good seller, uou could do well.Sr. Financial Service Representative in Alpharetta, GAGran culture and coachingVery good culture to start if you enter the industry. Coaching and education are phenomenal. The training is intense, but it's worth it if you can stick with it. Management is second to none.
